

Alasia Barbera 2022

---

The One Liner

Juicy red with raspberry, plum and cherry flavours.

Tasting Notes

A fresh, juicy red with aromas of raspberries, plums and cherries. These characters follow through to the palate, along with soft tannins and a savoury spiciness. Refreshing acidity on the finish.

Food Matches

Fantastic with pizza and pasta and plenty of Parmesan!

Producer: Araldica Vini Piemontesi

Araldica is Piemonte's largest and most progressive co-operative yet retains a small, family run company feel, thanks to the inspired guidance of winemaker/manager Claudio Manera (whose father Livio was the co-op's first winemaker in the fifties) and his wife Lella, also a winemaker and in charge of Quality Control. 80% of production is bottled at the company's headquarters (an extraordinarily high percentage for a large co-operative) in the Monferrato hills. This is complimented by two estates, each with its own vinification cellars, La Battistina in Gavi (where Araldica is the region's largest vineyard owner) and Il Cascinone. Claudio says 'Our intention has never been to follow an idle dream of making a great wine that is then impossible to find or difficult to afford. Our broader ambition has been to provide a range that is both understandable and accessible. Quite simply, wine for drinking and enjoying.'
