

Alasia Piemonte Cortese 2022

The One Liner

Full of crunchy green apples and citrus fruit.

Tasting Notes

Fresh green apple aromas with notes of grapefruit, lime and honeysuckle. The palate is lightly honeyed, yet fresh and crisp with citrus flavours and a mineral note on the finish.

Food Matches

Great with a chicken caesar salad!

Producer: Araldica Vini Piemontesi

Araldica is Piemonte's largest and most progressive co-operative yet retains a small, family run company feel, thanks to the inspired guidance of winemaker/manager Claudio Manera (whose father Livio was the co-op's first winemaker in the fifties) and his wife Lella, also a winemaker and in charge of Quality Control. 80% of production is bottled at the company's headquarters (an extraordinarily high percentage for a large co-operative) in the Monferrato hills. This is complimented by two estates, each with its own vinification cellars, La Battistina in Gavi (where Araldica is the region's largest vineyard owner) and Il Cascinone. Claudio says 'Our intention has never been to follow an idle dream of making a great wine that is then impossible to find or difficult to afford. Our broader ambition has been to provide a range that is both understandable and accessible. Quite simply, wine for drinking and enjoying.'
