

Cadus Tunuyan Appellation Chardonnay 2016

The One Liner

A steely character which marries nicely to the lemon and green apple fruit.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of citrus fruit and a stoney minerality. On the palate, this wine's minerality really shines through where a defined steely character which marries nicely to the lemon and green apple fruit. A clean, textural finish beautifully balanced by fresh acidity.

Food Matches

Trout, sole, lobster, seafood, cheese fondue, chicken in citrus sauces, rabbit and salmon stuffed pasta.

Producer: Cadus

Cadus is a perfectly formed winery near Tupungato, in the shadow of the Andes Mountains, within the Uco Valley. This high altitude region has quickly built a reputation as the home of premium Mendozaan wines and the Cadus range is no exception. The soil profiles and compositions within the Uco Valley vary within short distances, allowing for different grape varieties and resulting in wines styles with unique characteristics. With vineyards in the best sites in the Valley (namely Gualtallary, Vista Flores and Agrelo in Lujan de Cuyo), Cadus wines are classic in style but with a very modern twist thanks to the vision of winemaker Santiago Mayorga (Young Winemaker of the Year 2017) who is quickly forging a reputation for bright, lifted expressions of wine from the region.
