

Capricho De Camilo Castilla

The One Liner

Dried figs and plums with hints of coffee.

Tasting Notes

Intense aromas of dried fruit, honey and nuts with hints of toast. The pallet is smooth and silky, with complex flavours of dried figs and plums with hints of coffee and a persistent finish.

Food Matches

As an aperitif with iberico ham and sheep cheese, lovely for dessert with vanilla ice cream, cheesecake, panattone or just over ice.

Awards & Press

Winner. Best unfortified wine - Top 100 Spanish Wine Awards 2016

Producer: Bodegas Camilo Castilla

Founded in 1856 by Don Camilo Castilla Alzugaray, Bodegas Camilo Castilla have been producing quality wines for the last 160 years. Since 1987, and under the management of Ana Beltran, Bodegas Camilo Castilla has re-established the elaboration of quality dry red and white wines. Ana Beltran continues to modernise the emblematic family of sweet wines, recovering wines that had died out under the Goya name.
