

Clos Henri Organic Marlborough Pinot Noir 2017

The One Liner

Dark fruit and liquorice is balanced by silky texture

Tasting Notes

A fine, pure and elegant nose with hints of smoke, cherry and pepper aromas. A juicy and giving palate of dark fruit and liquorice is balanced by silky texture and generous tannins.

Food Matches

Herbed crusted lamb cutlets or chargrilled venison.

Producer: Clos Henri Estate

Clos Henri is a new vineyard development in Marlborough, New Zealand begun by the internationally recognised winemaking family of Henri Bourgeois of Sancerre, France. For ten generations the family has crafted premium quality Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir wines and in 2000 chose 109 hectares of native Marlborough pastures to continue their passion abroad. The first Clos Henri wines were made in 2003 and subsequent vintages benefit from being made on the Clos Henri terroir. Organic and Biodynamic.
