

Digby Fine English Vintage Reserve Brut 2010

The One Liner

Rich and toasty style with poached apple and brioche notes.

Tasting Notes

High energy on the nose with a rich body reflecting five years of lees ageing. A well integrated seam of acidity draws the sipper through layers of lemon magnolia and lightly poached apples to a long finish of brioche and gunpowder.

Food Matches

Smoked salmon, poached fish in white sauce, Japanese cuisine, smoked chicken breast.

Producer: Digby Fine English

Digby Fine English is proud to be the official sparkling wine producer for Leander Club, the most decorated, elite rowing club in the world. Every Leander Pink bottle sold supports Leander Academy, training new talent to become the world champions of the future. Digby achieves its Fine English standard through the refined art of blending, using grapes grown by its meticulously groomed partner vineyards in the chalky soil of Kent, Sussex, Hampshire and Dorset. This, plus the long, cool growing season and Digby's inventive winemaking put it in the vanguard of the English sparkling wine movement.
