

Garnacha Monfil 2020

The One Liner

Fresh and lively cherry fruit.

Tasting Notes

Fresh and lively cherry fruit. Extended softness and a touch of pepper and a light smoky note. Nice and smooth tannins.

Food Matches

Excellent by itself or with rice dishes, duck, grilled vegetables, roasted lamb, cold meat, cured cheese and Asian dishes.

Awards & Press

Big statement wine – this is the finest value red in the country right now with its amazing, juicy fruit, twist of cinnamon spice and epic, long finish. Buy all you can and glug it with the Venison scotch eggs recipe. Matthew Jukes (Oct 2016)

Producer: Bodegas Y Vinedos Monfil

The Monfil name is the surname of their great grandmother Carmen Monfil. Carmen's family owned large vineyards in Cariñena. Bodegas Monfil is run by the Mateos Family, who come from three generations of winemakers. It was set up in 1943 by Victor Mateo and since that time the family continue to strive for quality. The three Mateos brothers work in the wine cellar, Maria Mateo is an Export Area Director, Ana Mateo is a Trade and Marketing Director and Victor Mateo is a Manager Director.
