

Jurancon Moelleux `Ballet D`Octobre` 2020

The One Liner

Sweet, honeyed wine with aromas of dried fruit and orange blossom.

Tasting Notes

Sweet wine with aromas of dried fruit and orange blossom. Made by the daily picking of extra-ripe fruit, it has delectable honey and apricot flavours.

Food Matches

For dessert, or as an aperitif, served very cold.

Producer: Domaine Cauhape

From brilliant winemaker Henri Ramonteu, a luscious 100% petit manseng, notable for its uncloying sweetness. Whole bunch maceration for 12 hours and gentle crushing in pneumatic press. Selection of juice (first pressing). Fermentation in 3, 4 and 5 year old barrels, followed by 6 months maturation in oak. The south-east facing vineyards of the domaine benefit from sunny autumns, permitting late harvest of the grapes. As `pourriture noble` is rarely found in the Jurançon, special ripeness is achieved by `passerillage` (over-ripening of grapes on the vine). 'Details make perfection, and perfection is never just a detail'. Henri Ramonteu.
