Producer: Domaine Alain Chavy

The Chavy family have hailed from the village of Puligny-Montrachet for over 200 years and the name is synonymous with consistent production of fine, elegant Burgundy. Alain and his brother worked with their father Gerard in the family domaine until his retirement in 1994. The brothers continued to work together until 2003, when they decided to part ways. The brothers split the family estate down the middle, with each brother receiving 6.5 hectares of prime Puligny-Montrachet vineyard. Alain has proved himself to be a very talented winemaker, producing elegant and very stylish Puligny-Montrachets in a cellar beneath his property in the centre of the village of Puligny.
