

Sancerre Rose, Les Baronnes Henri Bourgeois 2018

The One Liner

Fresh, ripe strawberries and cranberries.

Tasting Notes

This refreshing, very fruity rosé will seduce you with its bouquet of ripe red fruits. It's easy to drink, fresh and particularly well-balanced in structure and aromas. Enjoy Les Baronnes rosé well-chilled but not too cold - about 10°C should be enough to conquer your guests!

Food Matches

Great with salads, springtime meals, or picnics - it's also a splendid wine to accompany Asian cuisine!

Producer: Domaine Henri Bourgeois

The grapes come from the slopes of the Loire Valley known as 'The Garden of France' In 1950, the Henri Bourgeois estate consisted of 2 hectares. Today, his sons have expanded the Domaine to 65 hectares of vines, judiciously situated among the best slopes of Sancerre and Pouilly Fumé. The family tradition, passed through generations, is based on respect of the terroir and winemaking. At Domaine Henri Bourgeois they are committed to producing the finest Sancerre and Pouilly Fumé wines. This means using the best of tradition with the best of modernity.
