Our Story

All wines in our portfolio are tasted, discussed, and decided on by our small, passionate team.

Alexander Wines was founded by Fraser Alexander in 1981 and from the very beginning the business has taken pride in sourcing a boutique wine selection and providing a bespoke customer service.

In 2018 AW joined the Dunns Food and Drinks Family. Dunns, one of Scotland's best-known food and drinks suppliers, has a history dating back to 1875 when a 26 year old Joseph Dunn started his soft drinks business in the east end of Glasgow.

AW is a people-oriented company which aims to work with you to be your partner in wine. We provide a personal service and treat all our customers as individuals with different needs and requirements. These values are reflected by Dunns, with both teams working together to ensure that innovation, integrity, and reliability are at the forefront of our businesses.

Whether it's traditional old-world wines, or current trends such as orange wine and pét nat, AW seek out and taste all additions to the portfolio as a team and hand-pick the wines that are relevant to the modern wine drinker. It is our mission to help Scotland's hospitality and retail sectors achieve their wine goals, whatever they may be.

Partnerships

SOCIETY OF VINTNERS

Through our parent company, Dunns Food and Drinks, we are a member of the Society of Vintners (SOV) and have exclusive access to their range of wines in Scotland.

SOV has been supplying fine wines to its members since 1975, and can trace its origins back to wine-buying groups in the 1960s (the Allied Wine Buyers Consortium) and 1970s (the Nottingham Wine Buying Group). The Society is owned by its members, currently numbering 29 independent wholesalers and wine merchants covering the whole of the UK.

This close relationship with SOV means that we have a huge range of wines at our fingertips, so if there is something in particular that a customer is looking for, we can reach out to our partners to find something suitable.

AWIN BARRATT SIEGEL WINE AGENCIES

AW are proud to partner with ABS Wine Agencies. Awin Barratt Siegel Wine Agencies, is the six time winner of the coveted IWSC Wine Importer of the Year trophy, and has been importing and sourcing distinct regional wines exclusively from key wine producing areas across the globe for the independent trade for over 30 years. ABS works with family run wineries to establish long term partnerships for distribution in the UK.

As the Scottish Agent for ABS, AW has exclusive access to their full portfolio. While many of their products can be found here in our portfolio, your account manager can also provide you with the full ABS brochure to browse their extensive range of wines, which we can ship to order for our customers.

If you are interested in products from ABS, let your account manager know and they will work with our stock controller to ensure that these products are made available to you.

Alongside our import partners, AW also imports directly from several producers that we have built long term relationships with.

Whether they have generations of wine knowledge behind them or are modern innovators who are the first in their family to reach the forefront of the wine industry; these producers are experts in their regions and committed to producing the best products possible.

Thanks to the strong relationships that we've built with these producers, we have access to a whole host of passion and knowledge straight from the source. From South Africa to Italy, representatives from these wineries come over to Scotland to attend our annual trade show, and host events in the trade. We've organised everything from a paddleboard wine tasting with Pierrick Harang to a five course champagne dinner with Gardet, so whatever brings customers to your doors, we can work together to plan something exciting and enticing!

Australia

A largely warm and dry climate means that many areas in the vast country of Australia are ideal for winemaking. The wine regions spread from cool climate Tasmania to the heat of the Hunter Valley, meaning that winemakers from down under are getting known for a lot more than big Shiraz and bold, buttery Chardonnays. The AW portfolio is choc-full of some traditional styles, alongside less common varieties like Fiano and Arneis.

Chile

This South American country has a long history with winemaking, with vines being brought over by the conquistadors in the 16th century. Nestled between the Andes Mountains and the Pacific Ocean, Chile's unique geography offers ideal conditions for grape cultivation, with a Mediterranean climate and fertile soils. Chile is known for its exceptional Cabernet Sauvignon, Sauvignon Blanc, and of course for its national variety, Carménère.

PRODUCER SPOTLIGHT

Domaine Alain Geoffroy

Wine list p39

Honoré Geoffroy developed the vineyards over the villages of Beine and La Chapelle Vaupelteigne, in the heart of the Chablis region, around 1850.

Alain Geoffroy expanded the property and took it to the level of an Estate. A worthy heir to previous generations, he committed to keeping the traditional family character.

The whole family's hard work and commitment to the development of the Domaine, has brought several accolades to the Alain Geoffory wines. Today they have 50 hectares of producing vineyards, and have gathered a young and dynamic team, to produce fresh, fruity Chablis wines with a good mineral character, respecting the typicity of the Chablis region.

Gardet

Wine list p42

Champagne Gardet was created at the end of the 19th century, in 1895, when Charles Gardet moved to Epernay. In the 1930s, his son Georges Gardet moved to Chigny-les-Rosés to continue the tradition and develop Champagne Gardet.

Respect for tradition remains the core concern of the Prieux family, today the happy owners of the House. Indeed, for several generations, the exercise of the agricultural and arboricultural professions has shaped the family spirit, which is now perpetuated by Christophe Prieux, Owner of Champagne Gardet, and by Olivier Legrande, Managing Director. Deeply attached to its Champagne roots, Gardet today combines 21st century technology with tradition to produce Champagnes of exceptional quality and international renown.

Based in Chigny-les-Rosés, a Premier Cru-ranked village, Maison Gardet offers 3 ranges of high quality champagnes. The 'Collection Tradition' is where harmony meets tradition, the 'Collection Extra Brut' combines patience and freshness, while maturity and finesse merge to create the 'Collection Prestige'.

Gardet was the first champagne house to be accredited by 'EnVol' in 2018. This label demonstrates the commitment of certified companies to reducing their environmental impact and protecting natural ecosystems and biodiversity. Finally, more than half of the vineyards cultivated by their partners are HVE/VDC (High Environmental Value) accredited, or managed organically.

Henri Bourgeois

Wine list p43

In the heart of the Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé terroirs, you'll find the famous village of Chavignol, renowned for its wines (from sloping and well-exposed hillsides) and its goats cheese. This is where the Bourgeois Family have been making wine for 10 generations.

In 1950, the Henri Bourgeois estate consisted of 2 hectares. Today, his sons have expanded the Domaine to 65 hectares of vines; they cultivate a mosaic of plots respecting the unique terroirs of Kimmeridgian Marl, Silex and Limestone Clays.

Their passion for wine inspires them to give the best to the vine and the vinification. The family tradition is passed through generations and based on respect for the terroir and winemaking. At Domaine Henri Bourgeois they are committed to producing the finest wines. This means using the best of tradition alongside the best of modernity.

Pierrick Harang

pierrick harang wine

www.phwine.fr

Pierrick Harang is a winemaker, wine consultant and windsurfer, who comes from 5 generations of wine professionals. He makes a stunning, expertly-crafted range of wines in the South of France.

The Balthazar range of wine is all about sharing Pierrick's love and passion for wine across the world and is named for one of the three kings who traveled to bring the gift of Myrrh to Jesus at his birth. Myrrh has been traded throughout history and was highly valued for use as a perfume and medicine, so Pierrick chose the name Balthazar to represent his wines that are designed to be shared all around the world with friends old and new.

Pierrick has been immersed in the wine industry for his whole life, with his father working at some of the best-known champagne houses in France, including as the Chef de Cave of Maison Mumm. Pierrick himself has worked as a wine merchant, winemaker, and taught a wine business course at university; making him very well placed to launch his own range of wines.

In terms of winemaking and vineyards, Pierrick doesn't have a château and vineyard that have been passed through the generations, instead he sources grapes from a group of cooperative vineyards. In these vineyards, he is meticulous in his plot and grape selection to ensure that the fruit harvested is optimal to create wines to his exact preferences. This is a fun, expressive range of wines with a bottle to suit every occasion.

Italy

With a plethora of indigenous grape varieties and diverse terroirs stretching from the alpine north to the sun-drenched south, Italy offers a vast array of wine styles, from the robust reds of Tuscany and Piedmont to the crisp whites of Friuli-Venezia Giulia and Sicily. Regions like Chianti, Barolo, and Brunello di Montalcino are synonymous with quality and prestige, while lesser-known appellations showcase Italy's regional diversity and experimentation.

Castello di Querceto

Wine list p61

Located in the heart of the Chianti Classico region, just 25 kilometres from Florence and not much further from Siena, is Castello di Querceto, home to the François family.

The castle came into the hands of Carlo François in 1897, whose family have been integral to winemaking in the region for many years. In fact, the François family is one of the few families that has remained uninterruptedly in possession of its winemaking business for more than 100 years. They were also one of 33 legal representatives who signed a consortium to safeguard the traditional wine of Chianti and its mark of origin in 1924.

Today, it is Alessandro François, a descendent of Carlo that has been at the head of the estate since 1978. Alessandro and his wife, Maria Antoinetta, have been responsible for the company's current high repute in more than 50 countries around the world.

Terredirai

Wine list p66

TERREDIRAI

www.terredirai.it

At the helm of Terre di Rai (Lands of Rai) is Sandra De Giusti, an entrepreneur who had no hesitation in embarking on the path that today allows her to work alongside her three children, sharing their great passion for the cultivation of vines and the production of wine.

The lands belong to the oldest noble families in the area and have been made productive and fertile in the care of its sharecroppers. Sandra, assisted by her children, is now the guardian of this land that is decorated by endless expanses of native vineyards on the left of the Piave, in the province of Treviso.

Covered with expanses of vineyards and dotted with centuries-old trees, the lands of Rai preserve treasures and traces of time and man, precious and evocative testimonies of times gone by. The remains of the Rai tower stand alone on a small artificial mound, immersed in centuries-old trees and surrounded by cultivated fields. Built on Romanesque foundations probably in the 10th century, the tower was part of a larger and more articulated fortress system of which it may have constituted the most prestigious nucleus, together with a keep and a stately home.

The history of Prosecco has its origins in the hills that extend between Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. For more than three centuries, the grapes that give rise to Prosecco Superiore have been grown along these steep slopes. In 2009, with the reorganisation of the Prosecco denominations, the Ministry of Agriculture classified the historical production area as a Denomination of Controlled and Guaranteed Origin (DOCG), the highest quality level for Italian wine. Terredirai produce both DOC and DOCG Proseccos from these renowned lands.

Portugal

Portugal's winemaking heritage dates back thousands of years, with regions like the Douro Valley, Vinho Verde, and Alentejo recognised for their distinctive wines. Port, produced in the Douro Valley, stands as one of Portugal's most famous exports, renowned for its richness and complexity. In recent years, Portugal has seen a resurgence in interest for its table wines, with indigenous grape varieties such as Touriga Nacional and Alvarinho gaining international recognition.

South Africa

Nestled at the southern tip of the African continent, South Africa boasts a diverse range of microclimates and terroirs, allowing for the cultivation of an impressive variety of grapes. With a winemaking history dating back over 350 years, South Africa combines old world charm with new world ingenuity to produce wines of exceptional quality and character. Regions such as Stellenbosch, Franschhoek, and the Swartland have gained international recognition for their distinct terroirs and signature grape varietals, including Chenin Blanc and Pinotage. Of course, let's not forget South Africa's world-renowned traditional method sparkling wine, Cap Classique.

Ataraxia Wines

Wine list p78

From the Hemel-en-Aarde region of South Africa. This area's name is Afrikaans for 'heaven and earth' and the claim is justified.

www.ataraxiawines.co.za

The Ataraxia wine estate sits on a particularly heavenly stretch of land beneath a lofty peak of the Babylon's Tower mountain range. In addition to its unrelenting beauty, Ataraxia is home to some of the most spectacular terroirs South Africa has to offer.

In 2004, The Skyfields Farm became Ataraxia wine label when husband and wife, Kevin and Hanli Grant and a few friends purchased this 47 hectare prime vineyard property.

Ataraxia is Greek for 'a serene state of mind, free from worry and preoccupation', which definitely comes to life through Kevin Grant's range of wines.

Two decades since they started out, the name Ataraxia is associated with crafting wines of incredible finesse, balance and depth; wines that proudly hold their own on the international wine stage.

Simonsig Wine Estate

Wine list p82

SIMONSIG
STELLENBOSCH

www.simonsig.co.za

Simonsig Wine Estate is synonymous with the history of the South African wine industry, the Stellenbosch wine region, and the Malan family name.

These elements are intertwined in this family-owned farm, where the late Frans Malan produced the first bottle of our much-loved Kaapse Vonkel, South Africa's first Méthode Cap Classique made in the classic bottle-fermented style. He is also honoured for co-founding the thriving Stellenbosch Wine Route, a first for South Africa at the time.

Today, his legacy lives on through his sons, Francois and Johan, and grandchildren Francois-Jacques, Christelle and Michael, the 2nd and 3rd Malan generations at Simonsig Wine Estate.

Simonsig Estate puts a lot of importance on sustainability and ascribe to a number of different accreditation schemes that ensure responsible and ethical wine production. They invest in their team, providing mentorship and leadership programmes for their staff, and their children, creating the building blocks for the next generation of the Simonsig Wine Estate family.

Spain

With over 2.9 million acres of vineyards spread across diverse terroirs, Spain ranks as one of the world's top wine-producing nations. From the iconic Rioja and Ribera del Duero regions to lesser-known gems like Priorat and Rueda, Spain boasts a wide range of grape varieties and winemaking styles. Tempranillo, Garnacha, and Albariño are among the many indigenous grapes that thrive in Spain's varied climates, producing wines that range from bold and robust reds to crisp and aromatic whites.

Franco-Españolas

Wine list p95

Franco-Españolas is one of the few centenarian wineries in Rioja; their wine has been seen as fit for a king's coronation and praised by one of world's most famous authors (and drinkers) Ernest Hemingway!

Bodegas Franco-Españolas was born in 1890 and represents a union between French and Spanish winemaking at a key moment in Rioja's history. At the time, many French winemakers came to the region trying to replace their vineyards devastated by the phylloxera disease. This marked the beginnings of fine wines in Rioja.

Their iconic white Rioja, Diamante, was first made in 1890, it was the first semi-sweet wine from Rioja and has made a name for itself all over the world.

After nearly 135 years, Bodegas Franco-Españolas is one of the largest wineries in Rioja and has an exceptional location on the banks of the Ebro River. The winery has been in the capable hands of the Eguizábal family since 1983.

The Bordón wines of today are unashamedly classic, made with the most traditional red grape varieties from the key regions of Rioja's PDO: Alta, Alavesa, and Oriental.

VALPARAÍSO
DENOMINACIÓN DE ORIGEN

www.bodegasvalparaiso.com

Bodegas Valparaíso is located in Quintana del Pidio (Burgos), also known as the Garden of the Ribera del Duero, on a hill from which you can see the town and its old buildings.

It has more than 70 hectares of its own vineyards, mostly Tempranillo (Tinta fina or Tinta del País), one from the early 20th century, planted in goblet and two from the beginning of the 21st century, on trellises.

The old vineyard is close to the winery, in the same municipality of Quintana del Pidio, and the new vineyards are located in two perfectly delimited areas, the Pesquera vineyard (Valladolid) at 925m and the Sotillo vineyard (Burgos) at 825m. In the winery they have around 700 barrels of both French and American oak, and all of them are renewed annually.

Snapper Rock

Wine list p112

The team at Snapper Rock have crafted a range of wines that capture New Zealand's maritime climate and unique terroir. At Snapper Rock they source fruit from two of New Zealand's most famous wine producing areas, Marlborough, at the top of the South Island and the Hawke's Bay, on the east coast of the North Island.

Hawke's Bay's alluvial plains, high sunshine hours and long ripening season create the ideal terroir for full bodied reds.

Marlborough's rolling valleys carved by ancient riverbeds and bright, long summer days with cool nights are ideal for the production of crisp, zesty whites and suave cool climate reds. Snapper Rock are one of a small bevy of boutique producers tending special blocks within the valleys, always looking to unleash Marlborough's potential, and crafting wines of the land, pure, taut and focused.

Their winemaking is simple – they employ modern techniques with traditional craftsmanship. Snapper Rock wines are focused on delivering the fruit driven styles of wine that has made Marlborough famous, while the cool climate of the most southern valley of the region adds something special not found anywhere else in Marlborough.
